Alma Mater

Hillsboro High School

Forward This is Hillsboro High School. Here, each day, we come together to work and to study and to learn to live together as men ought to live. Here, we learn to respect knowledge and competence, and here we learn to love wisdom. In the road ahead, may the memories of these wonderful years when we "traveled through these realms of gold" be kept fresh and bright in the pages of this book.

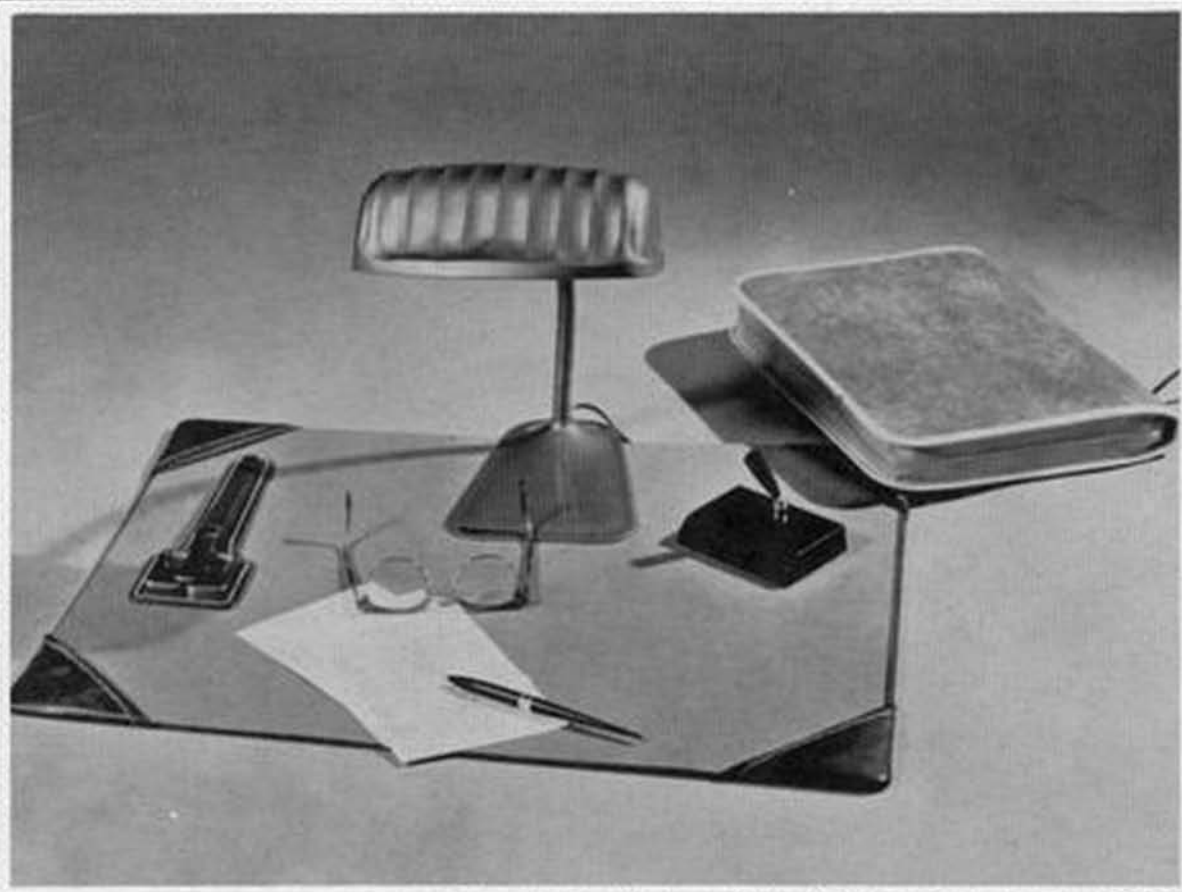

Dedication

Dear Mr. Anderson:

Words cannot express our deep appreciation for the help and advice you have given us during our four years at Hillsboro High School. Not only in our class projects, but in our individual problems, you have taken an interest and offered wise counsel. It is, in an effort to thank you for all you have done, that we dedicate our yearbook to you, Mr. Anderson.

Senior Class of 1959

Class History

Four long years ago in September 1955, a group of thirty-four students entered "the House of Learning" known here and abroad as Hillsboro High School. Those thirty-four were: Stephen Anderson, Charles Bostic, Vangelina Brown, Fred Copenhaver, Marvin Doss, Christine Gurn, Randolph Hall, Samuel Hickman, Ann Hilleary, Joe Hollandsworth, Louise Hollandsworth, Joyce Jackson, Rita Jones, Dixie Kershner, Edan Kramer, Midge Kramer, Sandra May, Leo McMillion, Lanty McNeel, Sherlin McNeill, Mary Poage, Ruby Morrison, Shirley Oscar, Randall Price, Emma Pyles, Jane Pyles, Sherman Rose, Eloise Ruckman, Daniel Sharp, Benny Smith, Margaret Starks, Ruth Starks, Sue Taylor, Grace Triplett, and Norman Walker. Our officers were: President, Lanty McNeel; Vice-President, Sandra May; Secretary, Ann Hilleary; Treasurer, Eloise Ruckman. Mr. Emery Anderson was our sponsor and he has followed us faithfully "through the grind." As initiation time approached, the sophomores really gave us a rough time; but made up for it with the nice party they gave us. Louise Hollandsworth was chosen high school cheerleader and served for four years. She was also Homecoming Queen Attendant. Jane Pyles was majorette.

As sophomores we entered the halls of H.H.S. with twenty-eight members. We lost Christine Gurn, Randolph Hall, Joyce Jackson, Rita Jones, Edna Kramer, Lew McMillion, Mary Poage, Sherman Rose, and Sue Taylor. We gained Earl Lawson and Jewel Walton. No one will ever know how much fun we had putting the Freshmen through the House of Horrors at initiation as we were on the giving and not the receiving side. Ann Hilleary was ou Attendant to the Homecoming Queen. Jane Pyles was a majorette, and Fred Copenhaver was F.H.A. King. Class officers were: President, Lanty McNeel; Vice-President, Sandra May; Secretary, Midge Kramer; Treasurer, Eloise Ruckman.

In '57 as jolly juniors, we again entered H.H.S. We had twenty-three students. New members were Billy Cook and Michael Moses. We welcomed Miss Evelyn Given as co-sponsor. Officers this year were: President, Sandra May; Vice-President, Midge Kramer; Secretary and Treasurer, Eloise Ruckman. This year Eloise Ruckman was chosen as a high school cheerleader. Jane Pyles was Head Majorette. Louise Hollandsworth was Homecoming Queen. Members chosen to the National Honor Society were: Dixie Kershner, Midge Kramer, Eloise Ruckman, Sandra May, Ann Hilleary, Jane Pyles, Emma Pyles, and Lanty McNeel. Marvin Doss was chosen F.H.A. King. On November 18, we were the proud receivers of the most cherished token of our high school days -- our class rings. We presented our class play "No Boys Allowed" on December 13, which was a great success. Our representatives to Know Your State Government Day were Benny Smith and Midge Kramer. Lanty McNeel was Chapter Star Future Farmer. We were the proud hosts for the Junior-Senior Prom on May 9. This will always be a cherished memory.

Our '58 - '59 year is IT! The long-awaited moment when we were to become Seniors. We had twenty-two members after having lost Marvin Doss, Margaret Starks, and Michael Moses, and gained Tom Feagans. Our officers were the same as last year. Louise Hollandsworth and Eloise Ruckman were Cheerleaders and Jane Pyles was Head Majorette.

As we close our records of the past four years, we are looking forward to our senior play, commencement exercises, our trip to Washington, D. C., and many other never-to-be-forgotten events.

Prophecy

One of my biggest desires since I first saw a cow was to take a vacation. That's when it all began, one usually doesn't see all his old classmates in such a short time and that's what makes it seem like a dream.

I first planned to go see the Indianapolis Speedway Race. It was wonderful, with only one wreck. And who do you think crawled from under that wreck? None other than Fred Copenhaver. You'll never believe it, but Sam Hickman placed second in that race.

My next stop off was Memphis, Tennessee. I picked out a beautiful motel, and to my surprise Dixie Kershner was the owner. She informed me that another of her dreams had been fulfilled -- that of the pitter patter of little feet. I visited the Riviera Night Club, which I learned was owned by Dan Sharp. I was watching Jane Pyles, head of the floor show, dance and sing when a cigarette girl approached me, Vangelina Brown. While there, Ruby Morrison served me the juiciest beef steak I believe I have ever eaten.

At the Memphis Airport I purchased my ticket for Dallas, Texas, from Ruth Starks. She had been employed there for the past two years. I found Eloise Ruckman to be the stewardess; I suppose she chose this vocation because she always wanted to be up in the air. While in flight, I bought a newspaper and of all things saw that Thomas Feagans II had been elected Governor of Texas.

Since I had a little extra cash on hand I decided to mix business with pleasure when I found that Lanty McNeel had some of the best cattle in the United States. I dropped in to see Lanty and found he had one of the meanest bunch of cowhands known anywhere. Who could be better fitted for foreman than Norman Walker.

My next stop was Las Vegas. I always did want to do a little gambling, but who could win with Benny Smith across the table. Benny informed me that Ann Hilleary was the owner of the Casino. I also learned from him that Louise Hollandsworth was teaching cheerleading and physical education in a rest home for the aged there in Las Vegas.

The next day I watched the Los Angeles Dodgers play baseball. Billy Cook was their manager. That same day I went to the MCN Studios in Hollywood, owned by Sherlin McNeill. Emma Pyles was playing the leading lady in their newest film. I learned from her that Shirley Oscar was make-up artist for the studio. I had dinner in the Brown Derby and was served by Sandy May. Sandy informed me that Midge Kramer was a beautician at Max Factor's Beauty Salon in Hollywood.

What a trip! I was very tired, but I can't tell you how glad I was to see all my old friends and classmates of Hillsboro High School.

Hillsboro Wins Blue Grass Title 20-19

Red Devils Come From Behind To Nip Peterstown

HILLSBORO — The Hillsboro High School Red Devils came from behind twice Saturday to squeeze past the Peterstown Pirates, 20-19, and win the Blue Grass Conference football championship.

Peterstown scored twice in the first period on one and 10 yard runs by L. Jones and held a 13-6 halftime margin after the Red Devils tallied in the second quarter on Kershner's one-yard plunge.

The Red Devils roared back to tie the count in the third quarter on a 15-yard run by McNeel, only to fall behind again when Peterstown notched a fourth period score on an eight-yard run by Lively.

The Pirates apparently had the game under control, and were driving for another touchdown at that point when Kershner intercepted a Pirate pass on his 17 and raced all the way back to the Peterstown 30. On the next play McNeel shot a 30 yard scoring pass to Cutlip to tie the count at 19-all and then passed to Gum in the end zone for the winning point.

The game concluded the season for both teams, Hillsboro finishing with a 3-5 record, Peterstown, a two-touchdown favorite, 5-4.

Blood, sweat, and tears go into this business letter which Miss Given will grade so closely.

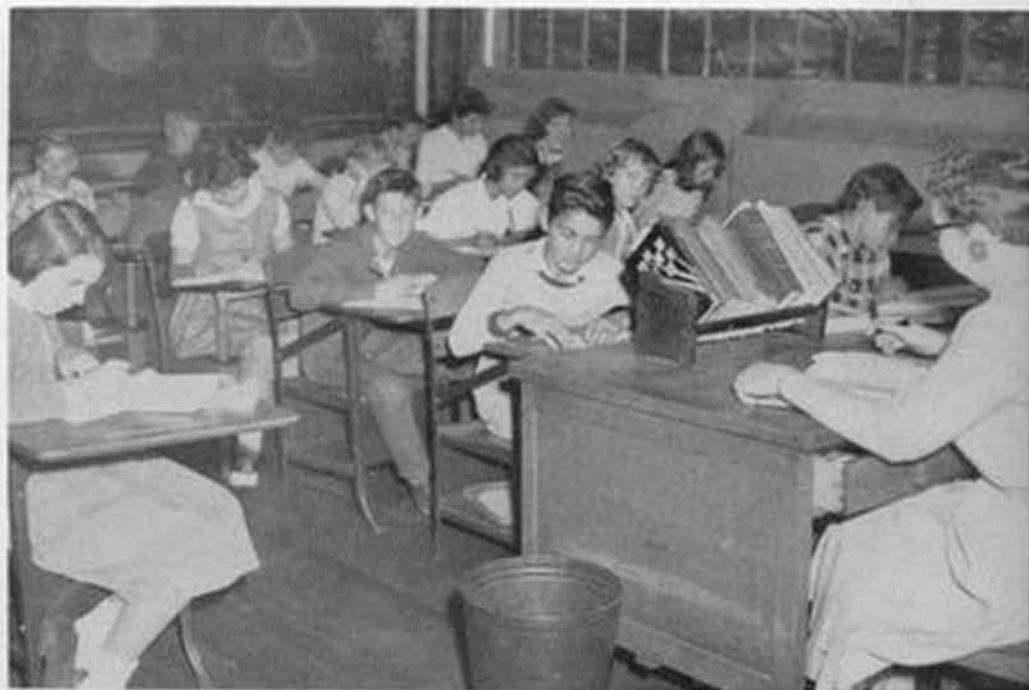

These boys, under the instruction of Mr. Callison, have the opportunity to put their building skill to good use.

These students assist Mr. Moore in any jobs to be done to keep the school running smoothly.

Believe it or not, there may be a genius in this Science 7 Class taught by Miss Liggett.

The task of making our school and community a safer place through a more intelligent approach to the responsibilities of driving falls to our Driver Education teacher, Mr. Anderson.
